SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

Chicago lost over one hundred and twenty-two miles of sidewalks in the great fire, estimated to have cost $1,000,000. Much of this was plank, but a great deal of stone flagging was also destroyed. The burnt sidewalks would have reached from Lake Michigan to the Mississippi, if stretched on the straightest possible line.

A Boston gentleman writes from Hong Kong, China, and says that an agent there had completed arrangements for sending a large number of coolies, or heathen Chinese, to Massachusetts, for the purpose of doing work in the cotton factories, and that two loads had already started, to be landed at Salem, Mass.

An important decision as to the rights of railway stockholders in case of a consolidation with other roads, effected against their wishes, has just been rendered in the Virginia Supreme Court. The Court held that the complainant, who is a stockholder in a Southern railway, cannot be compelled to merge his stock in that of the company with which his road has consolidated.

It is estimated that the great trunk lines of railways carried last year 3,000,000 tons of Western produce to the Atlantic markets, valued at $400,000,000. Without the agency of railroads, full three-fourths of this amount would not have been produced. One of the functions of railways is to make distant production marketable. In this way they produce wealth by enabling others to produce it.

There is great excitement in England upon upon the subject of oysters. The price charged for good ones is five times as great per bushel in 1871 as it was in 1863. The beds have been dredged to death, and cannot restock themselves. Formerly, the price was from sixpence to one shilling per dozen, now it is from half a crown to three shillings; though there is a large, coarse oyster sold at fifteen pence per dozen.

A company has been organized in Erie, Pa., to manufacture paper from wood. The Observer says: "The process is a new one, but has been carefully tested to the satisfaction of parties concerned; and has already been adopted by one of the largest manufacturers in New England. The machinery has been contracted for, the site is located, and the mill will be a sure thing. It is expected to give employment to a large number of men."

The Bank of France has determined to put in circulation its immense sums of gold in the shape of twenty franc pieces; as it is believed that the financial crisis has, to some extent, been assisted by the scarcity of coining establishments in that country, it has been decided to establish more at various places. The important port of Marseilles is to have one. Five and ten franc notes were issued between the 10th and 15th of November.

A writer in the British Journal of Photography predicts that, owing to the perfection of micro-photograph, brought about by the necessities of the Parisian siege, we will soon have our daily paper handed to us the size of a postage stamp, and carry our favorite poets in our vest buttons. We will see "a new edition of Macaulay, complete in three shirt studs," or "the tiny edition of Dickens," complete in two sleeve buttons. Every one will then carry a microscope as we now do a pen-knife.

The use of steel nails for horse shoes is proposed by a Canadian inventor, the metal being formed for this purpose into bars by rolls, which reduce the steel to any desired thickness, and as steel is homogeneous, the plates can be cut in any and every direction. This being the case, instead of cutting selections, as when iron is used, the inventor makes strips of indefinite lengths from the steel, with the heads on both sides of the strips, and which are, therefore, entirely unlike the corrugated iron heretofore rolled in the ordinary horseshoe nails.

Mining intelligence from Cottonwood, Eureka, Camp Floyd and other districts in Utah, is exceedingly favorable. In only a few instances do the heavy snows interfere with work. The President and His Accusers.

[From the New York Times.]

As to the objections to General Grant's course on public affairs, we do not profess to answer them now; we merely repeat our own opinion that in the main his policy is a sound, wise and beneficial one. A man of purer private life than General Grant never occupied the Presidential chair. Is it just—is it worthy of the President's position or of this great nation—that he should be called to account at any moment by every disappointed office seeker who chooses to invent a new slander against him? We have replied to these charges because, by constant repetition, they might have imposed upon credulous minds. The more thoroughly they are sifted, the more shamefully false and malicious they will appear. We believe that a majority of the people look upon these calumnies with indignation. They have made thousands of friends for the President among that quiet and thoughtful class of the community which rarely busies itself actively in politics, but which admires pluck and silence in public men, which hates to see injustice done, and which despises the cowards who try to undermine a public reputation by defaming private character. Whatever rejected office seekers, like the calumniators of the Sun, may do or say, the great majority of the American people are lovers of fair play; they detest slanderers and liars; and they will honor General Grant all the more because he goes on steadily doing his work, in disregard of the insults and taunts of men who hate him because he will not yield to their demands.

The U. S. Government vs. the Catholic Mission at Vancouver.

VANCOUVER, W. T., Dec. 26, 1871.

To the Editor of The Oregonian:

SIR: In a late number of the Vancouver Register I notice the following words addressed by Mr. Garfield to the citizens of this town: "There was no hope of a settlement of the Mission claim while the military occupied a part of the land in dispute."

It is not to be supposed that Mr. Garfield, who has lately returned from Washington, made use of this assertion inconsiderately or without knowing the determination of the Administration in the case.

Now, Mr. Editor, is this not a very strange determination? Why is it that because the military occupies a part of the land in dispute, there can be no settlement of the case?

Is not this a most unheard-of way of dispensing justice? Whether the title of the Mission be valid or null, is not the Administration in duty bound to decide it at once? By refusing to take action in the case under the plea of occupancy by the military, is not the Administration failing to fulfil one of its most incumbent duties—that of causing the laws of Congress to be promptly and faithfully executed, and the more so, when, as in the present instance, so much is at stake, not only for the parties more intimately connected in the matter, but for the community at large?

If the title of the Mission to the claim be valid, as the report of the late Dr. Henry seems to prove without the least particle of doubt, why defraud the Mission of its just right to it? If, on the contrary, the title of the Mission be null, why not so declare it at once, and thus put an end to this unsettled state of affairs? The only conclusion one can reasonably arrive at is that this protracted delay on the part of the Government to come to a final decision indicates but too plainly its implicit acknowledgment of the validity of the Mission title to the disputed claim.

I have said enough, I presume, to prove that the plea of military occupancy is no sufficient reason for the postponement of this vexed question, and that in allowing such paltry reason as this to impede its action, the Government was far from acting in accordance with its much-boasted liberality and justice; yet I cannot refrain from making a few additional observations to show that in the present case, the Government does not only exhibit a want of liberality and justice, but the most glaring partiality.

It is a well known fact that the Catholic Church asks no privilege over the other religious denominations. All she asks is equal treatment, equal justice, and the Constitution of the United States grants her that right. Is she then treated accordingly? Let the impartial reader decide for himself, from the following fact:

There have been, on this coast, two cases of Mission claims quite similar, founded on two acts of Congress, and both occupied by the military—one at the Dalles, in Oregon; the other at Vancouver, Washington Territory. The former was claimed by the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1860 the Government acknowledged its title and paid the claimants twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for the release of the land within the limits of the military reserve and all claims for damages. This was nothing but right and just.

Now, how fares it with the Catholic mission claim of Vancouver, occupied by the military since 1849? Until now, the Government has persisted in refusing not only to acknowledge the validity of the title but also to declare its nullity, if considered null, for the reason (?), as Mr. Garfielde tells us, that "the military occupies the land," or the no less lame pretext adduced by an ex-Secretary, "that the Government has expended large sums of money on the spot!"—which, in plain English, must mean that the title of the mission will be disregarded and the land occupied indefinitely without either indemnity or compensation. If this is not partiality, then words have lost their ordinary meaning.

It is to be hoped, however, that the Hon. Secretary of the Interior now in office, will understand better than some of his predecessors in what equal justice really consists, and be more inclined to render it promptly and fearlessly, without regard to any party considerations, whether religious or political, showing thereby that the Government uses no longer two weights and two measures concerning mission claims entirely identical.

A CATHOLIC.

Origin of a National Hymn.

HOW "MY COUNTRY, 'TIS OF THEE" WAS WRITTEN.

[From the Boston Transcript.]

An old friend of the Rev. Dr. S. F. Smith made inquiries concerning the composition of the popular and familiar hymn beginning with the lines:

> "My country, 'tis of thee,
> Sweet land of liberty."

The author in reply, made the following statement, which we are permitted to copy, and which we feel sure will be read with much interest:

"One day, I think in the month of February, 1831 or '32, in turning over the leaves of one of some music books, I fell in with the tune 'God Save the King,' though I did not know it at that time to be the English national air. I at once wrote a patriotic hymn, in the same measure and spirit, and soon after gave it to Lowell Mason, together with other pieces, and thought no more of it. On the next Fourth of July I found that the piece was brought out for the first time at a children's celebration of the day in Park street Church, Boston. This was the beginning of its course. It gradually found its way into music books for children, and into the public schools in various places; and thus, I can not but think, may have had an influence in infusing into many childish hearts a love of country, which prepared them to battle for the right, the true, and the good, when the time of peril to our institutions and our country came.

"I have often remarked that if I had supposed the piece would have been so popular, I should have taken more pains to perfect it. 'Yes,' says some one, 'and thus, perhaps, you would have spoilt it.' It has won its way, most unexpectedly to myself, into the hearts of the people. I have heard most gratifying narratives of the places where the circumstances under which it has served as the expression of heart-felt love of country—in schools, in huts, on Western prairies, in churches, on the eve of battle, and in soldiers' hospitals. I never designed it for a national hymn; I never supposed I was writing one. I never offered it for public acceptance as such. But if the people will sing it, I am sure I cannot help it. I thank God that He ever led me, such as it is, to write it. It is my cheerful contribution to the cause of patriotism, and the manner in which it has been received is an abundant compensation. Very sincerely yours, S. F. SMITH."

An ambitious amateur once put up the play of the "Lady of Lyons," as a complimentary testimonial to himself. At the end of the first act he addressed the audience as follows: "Ladies and gentlemen, with your permission I will conclude the evening's entertainment by singing 'I Would not die in Spring Time,' as I find the part of 'Claude' a little too hefty for me."

Canadian Annexation.

The editor of the Covenant, a journal published at Quebec, recently delivered a lecture in Montreal on "Confederation, Independence and Annexation." The conclusion of the speaker that the only future for Canada was its annexation to the United States was loudly applauded. The St. Paul Press has these remarks on the subject:

> For that matter the process of annexation is going on every day in the streams of emigration which is constantly pouring into the United States from Canada, and the very efforts which the Canadian Government is making to avert its manifest destiny, only tend to precipitate it. Canada fondly believed that by extending its jurisdiction over the western half of British North America, and opening up new theaters for Canadian colonization, the and the building of a Canadian Pacific Railway would consolidate and strengthen its confederation, and infuse into it the elements of a healthy continental growth on a solid basis of continental unity. But all the signs indicate that in attempting to build up colonies west of Lake Superior, it has overtasked its strength, and that provinces it is planting there, so far from proving the buttresses and outworks of an independent northern confederation, will be forced, by their remote geographical isolation from Canada, into such an intimate commercial dependence upon the adjacent regions of the United States, that all the principal benefits of this expensive scheme of territorial expansion will accrue to the United States, to be followed at no distant day by the absorption of these western provinces into the United States. The proposed Canadian Pacific Railway would only increase the momentum of the forces which are impelling the whole of Western British America into the great current of commercial and industrial activities—which, with the building of the Northern Pacific Railroad, will sweep with irresistible power along that region, and draw into it and control the whole movement of colonisation and commerce throughout Western British America. If the Canadian people were a different race, a different language and a different religion from those of the United States, they might hope to sequester in a distinct political community in the narrow belt of continent north of the St. Lawrence, the Lakes, and imaginary parallel of 46 degrees, their fragment of the great continental organism—their side of the great tide of continental life and growth; but with no such barriers, either physical or social, to divide them from the United States—drawn towards this country by every tie of consanguinity and homogeneity—impelled toward it by the constant pressure of every material interest—it is impossible that any artificial barriers which the Canadian Government or our own can devise, should long be able to resist those supreme laws of natural gravitation between the communities, which is rapidly and surely bringing about the unity of the Anglo Saxon race on this continent under one flag and one Government.

The Great Joke of Wyoming.

HISTORY OF THE PASSAGE OF THE WOMAN SUFFRAGE ACT.

The accident, for such it was, by which woman suffrage became the law of Wyoming happened in this way: The President of the Council of the first Territorial Legislature of Wyoming strolled into the office of the Secretary of the Territory one morning in November, 1869, to talk about local politics. Woman suffrage came up for its share of attention. Said the Secretary, who was a staunch advocate of woman's rights:

"Mr. President, do you know that you have the greatest opportunity of any man in America to immortalize yourself?"

"How?" inquired the President.

"By introducing a bill in the Council extending the right of suffrage to women," replied the Secretary.

"By Jove! I'll do it if you'll draw up the bill," responded the President.

"Agreed," answered the Secretary; and Mr. President smiled the smile of quiet satisfaction incident to the birth of a new idea, pulled away at his cigar, straightened himself and walked to the Council chamber to ponder on his future greatness. The bill was drawn, introduced, and passed the first reading in the Council—more for the novelty and notoriety than because its members were in its favor.

In the lower House, however, the bill met opposition, and became the subject of earnest discussion on the part of a majority. The majority looked on the whole thing as a joke of the rollicking Secretary, and were disposed to let him have his fun, while they would enjoy the big supper promised them by the Secretary if they should pass the bill. Thus the bill passed, the House not supposing the Council would confirm it on its final reading. The Council, however, did pass the bill, whether from indifference or to appear consistent with its former action it is impossible to say, as it is equally impossible to account for most of the laws passed by this Legislature on any known hypothesis. But whether joke or design on the part of the Secretary, the members of the House were certainly victimized, for they never got that big supper, and the bill did pass.

It only waited now for the Governor's signature under the great seal of the Territory to make this bill a law in the land. In a few days the bill was returned with his Excellency's familiar O. K., and woman suffrage became both a law and a fact in Wyoming. It must be said in explanation that the Governor supposed himself a statesman with future prospects; and like all great men, has his hobbies, one of which is his official signature, on which he greatly prides himself, though as unintelligible to an American as the Chinese characters on a package of tea.—*Cor. Ancient Mecklenburgh.

[From the N. Y. Independent.]

Somebody, we forget who, once described Pompeii as "an ancient town potted for posterity." It is not generally known that there exists still in Europe a state which preserves all the conditions of the Middle Ages, a relic of feudality, which has withstood the March of Mind and the Spirit of the Age unto this day. Any one who will pay a speedy visit to the Grand Duchy of Mecklenburgh, in the northern part of Germany, bordering on the Baltic, may witness a political and social state of affairs such as existed three hundred years ago. Three hundred, did we say? It has undergone no change of institutions for just about six hundred years—since the days of the Emperor Rodolph of Hapsburg, who founded the house now reigning in Austria. It has retained its boundaries, its institutions, and its dynasty for all these ages—centuries before Prussia was thought of, or Hanover, or Bavaria, or Saxony was born. The Grand Duke is an absolute sovereign, without any let or hindrance from modern constitutional interferences with his rights. He owns in fee two-fifths of the territory; two-fifths belong to the nobility, and the other fifth to the cities. The population of the Duchy is about 500,000, of which 200,000 virtually belong to the Grand Duke, an equal proportion to the nobles, while 100,000 appertain to the cities, as of old time. The nobles are sovereign within their own domains, subject to fealty to the sovereign, and the cities are controlled by the guilds, as in the Middle Ages. The army of this principality amounts to about 5,000 fighting men, and it enjoys the advantage of a modest little debt of about $5,000,000. The only restraint on the absolute power of the Grand Duke is to be found in the Diet—none of your newfangled representative affairs; but consisting of the nobility, or holders of knights'-fees.

There are a few representatives of the cities; but they are of small account. The Grand Duke claims to represent the oldest family in Europe, tracing back his genealogy to Genseric, the king of the Vandals in the fifth century. But he will not long enjoy the full possession of his divine rights. The upstart kingdom of Prussia, with its parvenu house of Brandenburgh, has already lubricated him and his, and will swallow them whole. The forced accession of Mecklenburgh to the German Empire will be followed by civil consequences more important than the resignation of the command of its five thousand men to the Emperor. A Mecklenburger, as a member of the Empire, elects representatives to the Imperial Parliament and has the rights of domicile, of industrial pursuits, and of holding real estate anywhere excepting in his own country. There he is subject to the absolute power of his sovereign, or his immediate lord, as completely as the French peasants were in the time of Louis XIV. In Mecklenburgh there is no such thing as "the people"—only lords and serfs. And as matters now stand, the Reichsrath has no power to alter this state of things in Mecklenburgh, any more than Congress had to abolish slavery in South Carolina. An amendment to the Federal Constitution will, doubtless, be proposed and thus guaranteeing to every State of the Empire a representative form of government. Thus this remarkable relic of feudalism may be destroyed. But it will not be done without resolute resistance. So that, as we have said, any person curious to see a state of society so anomalous in the light of the present day, should make haste, before iconoclastic hands have been laid upon it, and it has been made like unto the nations round about.

Discovery at Jerusalem.

A few months ago a discovery was made of one of the posts supporting the stone balustrade which separated the sacred portion of the Temple at Jerusalem. The following account is interesting:

> This post bears an inscription in Greek to this effect: "All strangers are forbidden to intrude within this balustrade. Whoever presumes to do so is alone responsible for what may befall him." This enclosure will be found described in Josephus, and it was by ... Paul ... the disciples who accompanied him from Caesarea within it that the riot arose among the Jews, on suspicion that they were Gentiles, from which he was rescued by the interference of the captain of the band. It is believed that this support of the balustrade is the most ancient as it is one of the most interesting of the discoveries that have been made at the Holy City. It gives the means of an approximate estimate of the proportions of the balustrade, as well as a confirmation of the accuracy of the descriptions of Josephus. A full description of it will soon be made in a special memoir. A yet later discovery is that of an unfinished pillar of Solomon's Temple, mentioned by Josephus as having been rejected on account of a flaw in the stone.

NEW ORLEANS JOKE.—A stranger steps up to him and says: "Ah! five feet nine high, two feet eleven across the breast, eighteen through." "What do you mean, sir?" eagerly asked the countryman. "It's all right," says the other. "You measure five eleven by eighteen; I'll be ready for you by 9 o'clock to-morrow morning," and he puts up the tape line with which he has been making the measurement. "What are you driving at, sir?" asks the countryman, angrily. "Why, you see," says the other, "the yellow fever is killing off strangers so fast that I have to take their measurement as they come in, or else the dead bodies accumulate on my hands." A pallor comes over the countryman's face, a frantic call is made to the baggage master to re-check his trunk, and he leaves for home.

EVIDENCES OF
DR. ABORN'S SUCCESS
DISEASES OF THE
LUNGS, CATARRH, BRONCHITIS,
AND [illegible]
CURED.

The following is an extract from a letter just received by Dr. Aborn, from one of his patients:
ASTORIA, Oregon, Nov. 29, 1871.
DR. ABORN—Dear Sir:—I am happy to state that by following your directions and using your medicines for a few weeks after I came home, I find all my ills removed; my hearing continues good; my lungs, I believe, are sound and the catarrh is cured. My bronchial affections are better than they have been for ten years.
I am fully satisfied that no other Doctor could have saved me from Consumption, or cured me of deafness, bronchial affections, etc.
My deafness was cured in three days, lungs and bronchial affections in about four weeks. May you live long to bless the world by relieving suffering humanity.
Yours truly,
DAVID INGALLS.

Still Another Remarkable Cure.
A PATIENT GAINS 15½ POUNDS AND RECOVERS HIS HEALTH IN FOUR WEEKS' TIME UNDER THE SKILLFUL TREATMENT OF DR. ABORN.
This is to certify that I have been afflicted for three years, and that I kept declining slowly until the latter part of last May, when I was taken down suddenly, since which time, as before, I could get no relief. My disease baffled the skill of every attempt, and only left me weaker, until death would have been a relief at many times. Four weeks ago to-night I placed myself under the care of Dr. Aborn, whose treatment gave me immediate relief, and I continued to gain so rapidly until now, after using his medicine only four weeks, I have gained fifteen and one-half pounds, and feel like a new man.
Yours truly, JAMES H. OGLESBY.
Needy, Clackamas Co., Oregon, Nov. 6, 1871.

CATARRH & NERVOUS DEBILITY.
TO THE AFFLICTED:—I wish to say that I have been afflicted for about fifteen (15) years with Nasal Catarrh. Of late it affected my throat and lungs and prostrated my whole system, so that I was scarcely able to pursue any business. I had tried several physicians without deriving the least benefit. In this seemingly hopeless condition, I applied to DR. ABORN about three weeks ago, and placed myself under his treatment, and I am most happy to state that I found wonderful relief within five minutes after using his apparatus and medicines, and continued to improve. I am now cured of the cough and pains through my chest and body, and, in fact, both mentally and physically I feel like a new person. I have recovered from the nervous debility. The offensive odor from my head and breath, which was so annoying, has disappeared. I have gained about eight pounds in three weeks. The Doctor has accomplished more in three weeks than what I supposed was possible to have done in as many months. Truly, M. L. DEAN,

FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 29, 1871.

England's Free Trade Policy.

Before our Revolution and consequent separation from England, that country did her utmost to prevent America from engaging in manufactures. She still pursues the same policy with the colonies and countries subject to her control. Look at Ireland, without manufactures, and devoted to raising stock and provisions for the British market. And what is the condition of Ireland? Ask those who come from there to America,—and all come who can;—they can tell.

Our Revolution and separation from England were brought on by a war of commercial interests. It was a war, remarks a noted publicist, that showed a determination on the part of the mother country to keep her colonies entirely dependent on England for all forms of manufactured articles. Laws were enacted to prevent the colonies from manufacturing out of their own good raw materials things indispensable for their own use, and necessary to give employment to those who have nothing to sell but their own labor. The war of the Revolution was a war of resistance to a war of commerce then being forced by the mother country on the colonies. But our victory did not deliver us from the consummate power of British diplomats, whose business it has always been to find the weak places in surrounding Governments, and to so control the legislation of those countries as to make them tributary to the wealth and power of Great Britain. These diplomats have therefore at all times exerted themselves to inculcate free trade ideas here, so that they might by art and strategy obtain the same results which they attempted to obtain prior to the Revolution by legislation prohibiting the establishment of manufactures in America.

To keep America still dependent on her for all forms of manufactured articles is still the policy of Great Britain. This is why Great Britain wishes the United States to accept a free trade policy. As in war we should not govern the movements of our armies by the advice of our enemy, so in a contest of commercial interests we should not allow our policy to be controlled by the trading nations who are our rivals. We cannot successfully run our plows against the steam engines of England; yet this is what free trade would compel us to do. If England could obtain our raw materials and send us finished goods free, the arrangement would be a highly profitable and satisfactory one to her. But it would be the reverse for the United States.

It has been repeatedly charged by the "organ" that the OREGONIAN was endeavoring to give May warning so, that he might escape. That he will be found and will return, we make no question. His conduct shows that he has never tried to escape. He was here for a long time after he went out of office, knowing that he was liable to be arrested any hour. Before he left it was asserted that he was known to be a defaulter; and had the authorities desired to prosecute him they might have arrested him then. That time was, however, more than a year too soon for the purpose they had in view. We believe May will return, will stand his trial, and accept the consequences of his act. His sureties will pay over any sum of money that may be adjudged due; but we venture the prediction that this sum will be found much less than the ex parte statement which has been given to the public makes it.

The New York Times does not advocate the peaceful policy of dealing with the copper colored aborigines of the Southwest. And, indeed, the Times, in its zeal against the Indians, is a little hard upon poor Mr. Vincent Colyer, of whom it makes the following remarks, which should have been well founded on facts or never made:

"This fatal 'peaceful' policy has cost the country lives that compare in more than one instance, favorably with Mr. Colyer's. It is difficult to discover to what quality Mr. Colyer is indebted for the distinction of being selected to bring the savages within the pale of civilization. Those who know him best, know that his public services have always been eminently profitable to himself, but they are not so sure that they have been at all beneficial to the country."

Singular things continually occur in politics. Tweed, Connolly and other Tammany thieves are arrested and branded as felons, but Mayor Hall, who was a confederate with them, and equally guilty, goes free and is permitted to hold the office of Mayor of New York. He signed all the warrants by which the money was stolen from the Treasury, and is in reality the greatest scoundrel of the whole pack. A New York paper says he superintended the whole job of stealing, "holding the horses while Tweed, Connolly and Garvey robbed the municipal coach." Yet this man escapes justice.

A letter from Vancouver, published in the OREGONIAN to-day, discusses with some apparent warmth the Catholic Mission Claim at Vancouver. We are not familiar with the case, but have no doubt whatever that if it be properly laid before the authorities at Washington a just decision will be rendered. Delay in cases of this description arise more frequently from want of their being properly presented than from any other cause. No doubt the fact of military occupation somewhat embarrasses this case. What is wanted is a suitable presentation of it at Washington.

The great New York Independent is not content simply to maintain the place it has won at the head of the highest class of weekly journalism; it makes progress and constantly improves on itself. There is no journal which treats with more acumen the pressing themes of the time. For scholarly writing, for the variety of subjects treated in every number and for liberality and catholicity of tone, the Independent is unequalled, and they who do not receive its weekly visits miss that which is best in weekly journalism.

The Herald, which is noted for the freshness of its news, has heard of the death of ex-Gov. Bigler, of California. As that event took place only about six weeks ago, this is pretty good for the Herald. That paper adds that Gov. Bigler's name "will always be perpetuated in the beautiful lake that took its name from him." The lake alluded to is called Tahoe; nobody thinks of calling it by any other name, although the last Legislature of California changed it to Bigler.

Here's ingratitude! The Roseburg Plaindealer turns coldly away from Pendleton, Hendricks and others who erewhile were objects of Democratic admiration, and who stood up for the party in the "dark days," and pronounces for Charles O'Conor for President. When did the gods ever prosper such ingratitude?

President Grant's "Relatives."

Of the statement that President Grant is a millionaire and the calumny that he has acquired his wealth by improper and corrupt means, we have spoken in a former article. It is said, however, that he has appointed large numbers of his relatives to office, and this statement has been plied with as much industry as the other. The New York Sun, one of the President's most persistent and shameless defamers, has published a list of twenty-five so-called "relatives" whom it is said he has appointed to office. The New York Times copies the list and examines it, with what result the following will show:

I. Jesse Root Grant, President's father, Postmaster at Covington, Ky.

Appointed to office by Johnson; retained by Grant.

II. Rev. M. J. Chamer, President's brother-in-law, Minister to Denmark.

Appointed Consul to Leipsic by Lincoln; transferred to Denmark by Grant. Is a Methodist minister, a thorough linguist, a most competent man and was highly recommended.

III. Brevet Brig.-Gen. F. T. Dent, President's brother-in-law, one of the military secretaries at the Executive Mansion.

Army appointment; holds no position of emolument at the hands of President.

IV. George W. Dent, President's brother-in-law, Appraiser of Customs, San Francisco.

Was strongly recommended by California delegation.

V. John Dent, President's brother-in-law, exclusive Indian trader for New Mexico under the Indian Bureau; place worth $100,000 a year.

Was not appointed by President; holds no office under Indian Bureau; profits of place grossly exaggerated.

VI. Alexander Sharpe, President's brother-in-law, Marshal of the District of Columbia.

A first-class man, and capital appointment; is a member of the President's official household, and the duties are of such a character that from time immemorial the place has been filled by a relative or near friend of the President.

VII. James F. Casey, President's brother-in-law, Collector of the Port of New Orleans, and electioneering agent for the renomination of Grant by means of United States soldiers and Gatling guns.

Is not President's brother-in-law; has proven an excellent collector; carried out many reforms, principally in taking control of Custom house out of hands of politicians.

VIII. James Longstreet; President's wife's cousin, Surveyor of the Port of New Orleans.

Is no relation whatever to either the President or his wife.

IX. Silas Hudson, President's cousin, Minister to Guatemala.

Was strongly recommended by his friends in Iowa; President has but slight acquaintance with him.

X. N. A. Patton, President's wife's cousin Collector of the Port of Galveston.

No relation. The President does not even know him.

XI. Orlando H. Ross, President's cousin, clerk, in Third Auditor's Office, Washington.

Was a gallant soldier; was appointed before Grant became President, and not on his recommendation.

XII. Mr. Addison Dent; President's wife's third cousin, clerk in the Register's Office, Treasury Department, Washington.

No relation whatever.

XIII. George B. Johnson; President's third cousin, Assessor of Internal Revenue, Third District of Ohio.

No relation whatever.

XIV. R. L. Winans, President's cousin's husband, Postmaster of Newport, Ky.

No relation whatever.

XV. A. W. Casey, President's brother-in-law's brother, Appraiser of Customs, New Orleans.

Is no relation either of the President or Collector Casey at New Orleans. President does not know him.

XVI. Peter Casey, President's brother-in-law's brother, Postmaster of Vicksburg, Miss.

Mrs. Grant's brother-in-law's brother; was a loyal Southerner. Not appointed as the President's choice.

XVII. S. T. Lambert, M. D., President's second cousin, Receiver of the Public Moneys in Oregon; said to be a defaulter, but retained in office.

No such person in office in Oregon now or at any other time.

[The person meant is no doubt Dr. Lamper, who was Receiver of Public Moneys at Olympia. W. T., but was removed by Grant for speculating with public funds. The Government, however, recovered the money.—ED. OREGONIAN.]

XVIII. Leader W. Clarke, the President's cousin, Supervisor of Internal Revenue for Southern Ohio.

No relation, was formerly a Member of Congress from Ohio.

XIX. C. A. Ford, President's cousin, Assessor of Internal Revenue, St. Louis.

Is no relation whatever; is Collector, not Assessor, of Internal Revenue; Mr. Delano says he is a first-class officer; "if there ever was an honest man he is one."

XX. Dr. E. H. Grant, the President's third cousin, Clerk in the Internal Revenue Bureau, Washington.

No relation.

XXI. E. C. David, President's wife's cousin's husband, Special Agent of the Postoffice Department in Illinois and Iowa.

No relation, the President does not know him.

XXII. Charles F. Baldwin, President's cousin's husband, Mail Agent in Kentucky.

No relation; President does not know him.

XXIII. John J. Grant, President's second cousin, Assessor of Internal Revenue, Twelfth District of New York.

No relation; President does not know him.

XXIV. Alexander Sharpe, Jr., President's nephew, Cadet at Annapolis.

Mrs. Grant's, not the President's nephew.

XXV. Frederick Dent Grant, President's son, Second Lieutenant Fourth Cavalry; gone to Europe on an illegal leave of absence granted him by his father.

Appointed to West Point by Johnson; is not on leave of absence, but is on duty on the staff of the General of the Army.

Our readers, says the Times, may now see for themselves the willful dishonesty with which this list has been prepared by the Sun. What are they to think of any fresh charges against the President which may proceed from the same quarter?

Amnesty.

In an article on the President's Message the New York Independent says:

We can hardly express our satisfaction at the ground which the President takes on the important matter of amnesty. His position is precisely right. It recognizes the fact that the time has now come when public tranquility and good government at the South can be best secured by allowing all its leading citizens the privilege, which they had a thousand fold forfeited, of holding office; and he qualifies this by the suggestion that a very few notable exceptions be made. We hope that Congress will act speedily in this matter. It would be an outrage, such as well might arouse the dead heroes of Chattanooga and Andersonville from their graves, to see Jefferson Davis again representing Mississippi in the Senate; but no hurt and much good might come from allowing less typical rebels the right of office.

Mayor Medill, of Chicago, in his inaugural address, estimates that city's loss by the great conflagration at one hundred and fifty million dollars. This is lower than heretofore estimated; but most of the authorities have not been of a very reliable class, and Mayor Medill's estimate may be nearer correct than theirs.

CAUSE AND EFFECT.—One kernel is felt in a hogshead; one drop of water helps to swell the ocean; a spark of fire helps to give light to the world. You are a small man passing amid the crowd; you are hardly noticed; but you have a drop, a spark within you that may be felt through eternity. Do you believe it? Set that drop in motion, give wings to that spark, and behold the results! It may renovate the world! None are too small, too feeble, too poor, to be of service. Think of this, and act. Life is no trifle.

A jilted swain spitefully says: "Eve did not know as much as her daughters of the present day. Had they been in her place instead of being deceived, they would have deceived the devil."

Failure of many of the most eminent physicians of San Francisco to cure a case of Rheumatism.—Triumph of the Unk Weed Remedy.

SAN JOSE, August 25, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.: This is to certify that I, the undersigned, have been sick for five years with Rheumatism, and have been treated for many ailments. My trouble has been weakness of the back and side, and wandering pains all over my body. I have been treated by many of the most eminent physicians of San Francisco, as well as of this city, but without any effect. At last I was induced to try your UNK WEED REMEDY, and the result was that after taking the contents of two bottles I found myself perfectly cured. To all afflicted with Rheumatism, I say TRY THE UNK WEED REMEDY, and you will be cured. Yours, truly, d4lt2p JAMES AHERN, San Jose.

ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, CATARRH.

Affections of the Lungs, Deafness, Discharges from the Ears, Nervous or General Debility, Sore Eyes, Granulated Lids, Opacity of the Cornea, Films, etc., are successfully treated by Dr. Aborn, cor. FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 29, 1871.

CITY.

WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT THE WEATHER.—On Wednesday morning we predicted a "thaw and rain" within the next two days. The indications yesterday were decidedly in favor of a verification of the prediction, and not a few persons have asked us how we knew it would "thaw and rain" so soon—which reminds us of a little story. A philosopher was riding along a country road one beautiful, bright day, when he encountered a lad who was tending a flock of sheep. The lad gave such intelligent answers to several queries as to strike the philosopher with some amazement. Finally, as he was about to proceed on his journey, the lad remarked, "You had better hurry, sir, or you will be caught in the rain." The philosopher saw no cloud, or other indication of rain, and so he went jogging on, taking to himself no trouble about the weather. Suddenly, however, there came up a shower in the most astonishingly rapid manner, and the philosopher got very wet. This set him to reflecting. How did the lad know it was going to rain? Would it not be a valuable acquisition to science to know how to predict rain with certainty, as did this lad? And the philosopher turned around and rode back to ask the lad how he knew it was about to rain. "Do you see that old wether?" said the boy, pointing out one of the flock. "Yes." "Well, when you see that old wether back up against the fence and scratch, you can bet your boots its going to rain."

HILLSBORO ITEMS.—Our Hillsboro correspondent sends us the following under date of December 28th:

The west side stage connects with the cars at this place; the cars taking the mail to Portland, the stage remaining over night, taking the mail and passengers south.

An enterprising citizen intends running a track from the road to a point where the station ought to be, carrying passengers to town or any part of the country they desire to go.

We understand that parties have made arrangements for building a steam flouring mill at this place.

The Sunday school Christmas tree contained presents to the amount of $600.

The weather still continues cold and sleighs are in demand.

Improvements are progressing as fast as the weather will admit.

A SUGGESTION OR TWO.—The boys who amuse themselves at the theater by stamping in time to the orchestra music, make themselves excessively disagreeable. We suggest to the management the propriety of an effort to suppress that sort of disorder if possible. Some of the attendants at the theater need a hint about their thoughtlessness in keeping their hats on, thus shutting out the view of those seated further back. People will not attend very regularly unless some better method be adopted for warming the room. On Wednesday evening there was a very general complaint of cold feet. It is terrible to sit for three hours with a current of frozen air playing about one's feet. A stove at the back part of the house would help the matter some.

PARTIES.—The "Willamette Hose Co."—an organization of young men, attached to Willamette Engine Co. No. 1—have issued invitations to a number of their friends to attend a soiree at the Washington Guard Armory this evening. The invitation committee consists of Jesse Grow, W. W. Gibbs, H. J. McCormick, John O'Connor and John Burk. The affair will, no doubt, be a pleasant one.....The members of the Washington Guard have made preparations for the celebration of New Year's Day by a social party at their Armory Monday evening. The management will be in the hands of the most experienced members of the company—a sufficient voucher that everything will be lovely.

NAVIGATION.—The steamer Vancouver went down to the Columbia river yesterday afternoon. Upon arriving at the mouth of the Wallamet no ice could be seen in the Columbia. Making further examination, it was found that there was a gorge about three miles above and that all the ice below that point had broken loose and floated away. The steamer ran a couple of miles down the Columbia, below the mouth of the Wallamet, but no ice could be seen below. It is thought that all the gorges below have broken away and that there will be no trouble in getting down the river, unless the upper gorges should also break and allow the ice fields to start again.

LECTURES.—The Washington Debating Society has completed its arrangements for a course of seven lectures, one each week, commencing next Wednesday evening at Philharmonic Hall. As before announced, Rev. Dr. Lindsley will deliver the first lecture. He will be followed by O. P. Mason, Esq., Prof. L. L. Rogers of Salem, Rev. T. L. Eliot, ex-Gov. George L. Curry, J. F. Caples, Esq., and Rev. John Rosenberg.

TO SAIL.—It was expected last evening that the steamers in port would be able to get down the river to-day, and it was, therefore, announced that they would leave here at about ten or eleven o'clock this morning—the Oriflamme for San Francisco, and the California for Victoria and Puget Sound.

PORTLAND DIRECTORY.—The last forms of this work are now in the hands of the printers, and it is said that the book will be issued by the middle of January. It will be far more complete in its census and statistics than any of its predecessors.

NEW YEAR'S ENTERTAINMENT.—An acting charade and musical exercises will be given by the members of Nonpareil Lodge, at their Hall, corner First and Madison streets, on New Year's night. The public are invited. No charge made for admission.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

PERSONAL, LOCAL AND GENERAL.

[From the Advocate.]

Rev. W. H. Mcisse will deliver a temperance address at Lee's Chapel, near East Portland, on Friday evening next.

Interesting and successful services were held in connection with the dedication of the new M. E. church at Jefferson, on Sabbath last. The sermon at 11 o'clock A. M. was preached by Rev. G. W. Izer, of Portland, after which a collection was taken, amounting to more than enough to pay off all indebtedness—over $1,000.

Prof. Rogers informs the Statesman that the "Temperance Pledge" has been signed by more than eight hundred of the youth of Oregon, and that others are enrolling their names almost daily. By request the time for signing the plege has been extended to the 22d of February, next, this being the time when the State Temperance Convention convenes at Salem. We hope to hear of the number being doubled before the opportunity of signing ceases.

EAST PORTLAND.

[From the Democratic Era.]

Miss B. Fay has established a cigar manufactory in East Portland.

The assessment roll for 1872 is now in the hands of the City Treasurer ready for collection. Property holders will therefore take notice and be ready when called upon to pay over their taxes.

The ladies of the East Portland M. E. Church will give a New Year entertainment, consisting of an oyster supper, music, tableaux, etc., at the Odd Fellows' Hall, in this city, on Monday evening, January 1st, 1872, at 7 o'clock.

At the last meeting of the Board of Trustees, claims to amount of $956.72 were ordered paid, the whole being for street improvements. The assessment roll for 1872 was received and turned over to the City Treasurer. An ordinance defining the duties and fixing the salary of the City Recorder was passed. The Street Commissioner was, by resolution, directed to contract for the completion of the J street bridge.

PERSONAL.

Judge Lorenzo D. Sawyer, U. S. Circuit Judge, has written to Judge Deady stating that he will not be able to hold Court here in January, but will be compelled to postpone his coming till spring.

Mr. A. DeCosmos, of the Victoria Standard, member of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia and of the Dominion Parliament, is at present a guest at the St. Charles Hotel in this city. He will return, however, to Victoria by the first steamer.

Mrs. Belle Cooke, of Salem, has received a letter from the poet Whittier, thanking her for a copy of her book. He says he found much in the book to assure him that its author has the gift of song, and that her heart is full of patriotism and home loves.

"KNOWLEDGE IS POWER."

PORTLAND, Dec. 28, 1871.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

SIR: I have just heard that the members of the "Washington Debating Society," of this city, are going to have a course of lectures in Portland, and that the Rev. Dr. A. L. Lindsley is to give the first of the course on Wednesday evening next, the 3d of January.

This Society is composed of a considerable number of excellent young men, organized for interesting and profitable objects—the discussion of the leading topics of the day and the production of essays on suitable subjects. These employments naturally and necessarily lead young men to read, study and reflect, and qualify them, to a certain extent, to take their part in public usefulness, to move forward with the rapid progress of the age and race, and the vast development of the mind and the material interests of the world.

This Society, like all others of a similar kind, require funds to carry on their organization, and this course of lectures is one of the pleasant and profitable ways of raising the necessary ways and means.

From my knowledge of similar associations, I think every good citizen, father and employer should encourage in some practical way such a Society. If fathers would make companions of their sons, be their confidant, sympathizer and counsellor, if employers would interest themselves in the comfort, improvements and progress of their young men, and not stand at such a wide distance from them and present such a stone front to them, they would be amply repaid for such sympathy, kindness and consideration.

What is a little attention, sympathy and encouragement, and a few dollars in the year judiciously spent in patronizing such useful institutions, compared with the grateful feelings and profitable services of sons and young men in the employment of others!

Dr. Lindsley's reputation is a guarantee that his lecture will be a successful one and secure a good audience. But the members of the Society should make it a triumph by having good music while the meeting is assembling and departing. There are, no doubt, a number of their lady friends who would perform on the piano and sing some good songs; and some of the music stores would most likely lend a piano for such an occasion, free. There are, no doubt, a number of professional ladies and gentlemen that would willingly assist in the musical department, without any charge, if the proper steps are taken to secure their services. If the members of this Society secure spirit stirring music at the opening and closing of each lecture, they may calculate on a successful course.

OBSERVER.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Chicken thieves are said to be prevalent in this city.

The Advocate's carrier will have a New Year's Address.

A mail for the Dalles was despatched yesterday overland.

The bad weather is responsible for great irregularity in the mails.

The Police court did not have a case of any kind before it yesterday.

A special meeting of the Police commissioners was held last evening.

The price of wood has been advanced till rates are fearful to contemplate.

It is said that the snow at the head of the valley is not so deep as here.

The Circuit Court for Multnomah county will meet again to-morrow morning.

Esquire Snyder yesterday sent two men to jail for thirty days each, for nipping.

The weather vane on the Congregational church has been frozen up for several days.

Work on the Oregon Central Railroad has been mostly suspended, since the cold weather set in.

The fall of snow, sleet and hail on Wednesday night utterly spoiled all the skating except at the rink.

Over three hundred presents were distributed from the Taylor street M. E. Sunday school Christmas tree.

It is said that Hallock wants Cree elected to the Council so that he may have somebody to second his motions.

The steamer Vancouver continues to make regular trips to the W. T. shore opposite the mouth of the Wallamet.

The telegraphic business has been knocked into a sort of cocked hat by the storms which have prevailed for two or three days.

A cotemporary relates a case wherein an officer failed to levy on the goods of a widow, because she "heaped coals of fire on his head." What a fiery woman!

RESOLUTIONS IN MEMORIAM.

The committee of Ellison Encampment, No. 1, I. O. O. F., made the following report to the last regular meeting, which was unanimously adopted:

Your Committee to whom was referred the duty of drafting suitable resolutions on the death of Patriarch C. Bills, beg leave to submit the following:

WHEREAS, Death has again invaded our Mystic Circle, the brittle thread that bound Patriarch C. Bills to life has been severed, and this Encampment mourns the loss of another member; therefore, as an evidence of our sorrow, be it

Resolved, That while we might mingle our grief with that of his relations and friends, we yet believe the Almighty doeth all things for the best.

Resolved, That we deeply deplore his death as a loss to this Encampment, and the Order at large, and that as a private citizen, or public officer, his loss will be felt in our public undertakings, where he has ever stood ready to further the interests of society.

Resolved, That as a testimonial of respect to the memory of our late Patriarch, the members of this Encampment wear the usual badge of mourning, and that our Charter be draped in mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the minutes, and a copy of the same, under seal of this Encampment, be sent to the family of the deceased.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Joseph Middlemiss, Superintendent of Agencies for the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, has located with us, and may be found at his office, No. 8 Front street, Central Block. He represents an old, time-honored company, and we predict for him success.

INSURE YOUR LIFE IN THE NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., of Boston, Mass. What better present for "Christmas" or "New Year's" can you give yourself or family than a Policy? G. C. RIDER, Local Agent, 92 Front street. JOSEPH MIDDLEMISS, Supt. of Agencies, No. 8 Front street, Central Block, Portland.

On Tuesday last there arrived in this city by the Oregon and California Railroad two men from Long Tom who had come all the way here to purchase suits of clothing from J. O'Neil & Co. They had been reading the OREGONIAN, and found that O'Neil & Co. were selling goods cheap, consequently they journeyed hitherward. O'Neil & Co. supplied them with the star shirt, under clothes, neck-ties and other articles, the parties being satisfied that O'Neil & Co. did the handsome thing with their customers. Go thou and do likewise, at O'Neil & Co.'s, 95 First street.

WORK of every description in the house finishing line will be done at short notice to the best of satisfaction.
PAUL RICHTER.

S. L. Stone is giving more toys and fancy goods for six bits than any house in town does for one dollar.

As S. L. Stone is closing out at cost his fancy goods, toys and willow ware, this is the last chance to buy cheap.

I say, mister, where is the Postoffice? Why, it is next door to S. L. Stone's cigar and tobacco store.

AMUSEMENTS.

ORO FINO THEATER.—The second night of Mr. Waldron's engagement was little less successful than the first as regards the numbers of the audience, though the weather was extremely forbidding. It was almost a wonder that ladies should turn out at all; but there were a considerable number of them present notwithstanding. The play was the sensational drama of "The Long Strike," which presents graphic and thrilling scenes in the famous strike of the Manchester workmen. It is an exciting story of the sufferings of workmen, obstinacy of employers, love crosses, intrigue, desperation, murder, arrest, trial, innocence vindicated at the instant of sacrifice, etc., winding up with a climax entirely satisfactory to the parties concerned and particularly so to the audience. Mr. Waldron plays two characters—the first a leader among the strikers, and afterward a rough, gruff and testy lawyer, though, as the sequel shows, a man whose exterior and protestations belie a large, kind heart. His personation of Noah Leroyd is in its way as powerful and artistic as that of Hamlet, though no two characters could be much wider apart. The madness of Leroyd, after the commission of the murder of Richard Radley, was so like the real article as to be almost startling. As the Lawyer, Moneypenny, Mr. Waldron was very happy, and he worked up the telegraph scene till the audience, thoroughly catching the infection, was nearly as much excited in reality as the players in simulation. The heroine of the piece, Jane Leroyd, as personated by Mrs. Waldron, was a little lacking in force, occasionally, but in the main, the character was well managed, and there were several passages given with intensity and excellent effect. In all the simply sad scenes and in the last conference with John Reilly, Mrs. Waldron's acting was first rate. Her faults were mostly where force of demonstration as well as intensity of feeling was needed. Mr. Barry, as he is always sure to do, afforded great amusement. Mr. Fulford went up a peg or two in general estimation by his very good and careful rendering of the dialect character of Jem Starkie. Miss Pelt was quite clever in the character of Betty, and, altogether, the play went off exceedingly well. The Long Strike will be repeated again this evening. It ought to have a fine run.

The market at the present time is fairly glutted with ready made clothing but the great difficulty is to obtain a really good and at the same time cheap article. A visit to that old and widely known establishment of Kohn & Fishel's, 91 Front street, easily supplies the desideratum. They have an immense stock of Clothing for all kinds of weather besides other goods for gentlemen and boys.

STYLES JUST RECEIVED.—Gilt Parlor Furniture, Easy Chairs in great variety; Bouquet Stands, Card Receivers, Wall Pockets, Finished in Gilt, Walnut, Ebony, Wax and Marquetry. Call and see the Woven Wire Mattress at HURGREN & SHINDLER'S.

Everybody says S. L. Stone is selling the best bit and two bit cigars in the city.

The Great Pictorial Annual.

Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1872, for distribution, gratis, throughout the United States, and all civilized countries of the Western Hemisphere, is now published and ready for delivery, in the English, German, French, Norwegian, Welsh, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish languages, all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, and professional man; and the calculations have been made for such meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive National Calendar.

The nature, uses, and extraordinary sanitary, effects of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the staple tonic and alterative of more than half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the Annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful, and may be had for the asking. The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa., on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood. The Bitters are sold in every city, town and village, and are extensively used throughout the civilized world.

NEW YORK
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY!
PURELY MUTUAL!
ASSETS..........$17,000,000!
ISSUED 9.025 POLICIES IN 1870.
Insuring Over $27,000,000!
WM. H. BEERS, Vice President and Actuary. MORRIS FRANKLIN, President.

AMONG THE ADVANTAGES OFFERED BY THE NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY are:—

1st. PURE MUTUALITY, so that the entire surplus earnings over the actual cost of insurance is returned to the policy holders who are the only members.

2d. AGE, having been organized in 1845. It has the benefit of the experience of a quarter of a century, and members are thus guaranteed from all doubtful experiment in the method of conducting its business.

3d. STABILITY AND PERPETUITY shown by the accumulation of a capital of Seventeen Millions of Dollars, after paying all losses promptly, and returning large dividends to its members. It has now an income of over Seven Millions of Dollars, and the interest on its investments, with premium on gold, &c., has been sufficient during the past two years to pay accruing losses.

4th. NON-FORFEITURE OF POLICIES. It originated the system of non-forfeiture of policies, and to it the public are indebted for a feature so favorable to the insured.

5th. SUICIDE does not cause a forfeiture of the policy, that being considered an evidence of insanity, and insanity the result of disease.

6th. DIVIDENDS. Its dividends are declared annually, and are available immediately as cash in payment of premiums. Many companies declare their premiums annually, but do not pay them till several years thereafter; others defer their declarations for two, three or four years from the time the policy commences. In this Company a party always has a dividend which can be used in the payment of the second and all subsequent annual premiums.

7th. ITS DIVIDEND SYSTEM is the "Contribution Plan," by which each member is charged with the exact cost of his insurance, and receives back his surplus payments. These dividends can remain with the Company, participating in its earnings, and be used at any subsequent period in the payment of premiums.

8th. LIBERALITY IN SETTLEMENT OF LOSSES. Experience has shown that cases arise where policies, although EQUITABLY claims, are not LEGALLY so. The records of this Company bear many acknowledgements from widows and relatives of deceased members of its liberality and fairness in settlement of all such losses. There being no stockholders in the Company to share its profits, interests adverse to policy-holders cannot possibly arise, the Trustees simply occupying the position of arbitrators between the members, with no inducement to take from one and give to another.

PORTLAND, OREGON.
Agents for the Sale of Blocks and Lots in HOLLADAY'S ADDITION TO
EAST Portland!

TO OUR PATRONS AND THE PUBLIC GENERALLY desiring to make SAFE and PROFITABLE Investments in Real Property, we beg leave at this time to call your attention to this DESIRABLE TRACT, which has been subdivided into Blocks and Lots, and is now in the Market, to be sold in [illegible] Lots and Blocks.
No one that has ever visited this body of land but what will say that it is the MOST ELIGIBLE FOR SUBURBAN RESIDENCES of any ever offered in this market, the land having a gradual slope from the River back to SEVENTEENTH STREET, there being scarcely any Block in the entire tract but what a
Fair View of the City of Portland and Willamette River
Can be had. Another advantage this Property will have for Residences: no high water will ever affect the drainage of the city.
The Oregon and California Railroad Company's New Ferry Boat is now making Regular Trips from the Foot of F street, Couch's Addition, to the Foot of Oregon street, Holladay's Addition.
IMPROVEMENTS TO BE MADE!
Aside from gigantic Improvements now in contemplation by the Railroad Company, in the construction of Wharves, Warehouses and Machine Shops, quite a number of citizens will commence erecting fine Residences and Business Houses; also, Street Improvements, now under contract, by grading and planking Holladay Avenue its entire length, to connect with the Sandy Road. We can say that at least a Half Million Dollars will be expended in Permanent Improvements on this Addition the present season.
TERMS OF SALE—50 per cent. CASH down; deferred payments, six and twelve months, with interest at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum.
NO QUESTION AS TO TITLE
The Title to this property is undisputed, being a portion of the Donation Land Claim of Jacob Wheeler and wife, United States Patent issued, and conveyed by said Wheeler and Wife to Geo. W. Weidler.
Parties desiring to invest will find Maps and Plats of the property at our Office, or at the Office of Messrs. PERRY, RUSSELL & WOODWARD, and other LAND AGENCIES in the city.
STITZEL & UPTON.

PICKINGS.

You can't marry a miss if you marry a widow.

An aboriginal gentleman, named Tomahawk, is preaching in Canada. He is a Low church man, of course.

Fame is like a shaved pig with a greased tail, and it is only after it has slipped through the hands of some thousands that some fellow, by good luck, holds on to it.

The other evening a lady propounded to us the following conundrum: "What kind of potatoes are most popular among the ladies?" We modestly remarked that we were not aware which species of potatoes the fair sex were most fond of, when the lady horrified us with the answer: "Palpi-tators."

There was, many years ago, a Lazy Man's Society. One of the articles of agreement required that no man belonging to the society should ever be in a hurry. Now it happened on a time that the village doctor was driving post haste through the streets to visit a patient. The members of the society saw him, and on his return reminded him of his fast riding and violation of the rules. "Not at all," said the doctor; "the truth is, my horse was determined to go, and I felt too lazy to stop him."

During the winter of 1867, Harry McN., of Baltimore, while acting in the capacity of commercial tourist, i. e. drummer, visited Wilmington, North Carolina, and stopped at one of the "first-class" hotels. At the breakfast table he gave an elaborate order to the waiter, and included in it "two soft boiled eggs." Sambo went off to the kitchen, but soon returned and asked: "Mass Boss, did you want dem eggs scrambled?" "No," said Harry, "I want them soft boiled." "All right, sar," and off he trotted again. In a few minutes he loomed in again, and remarked in a most persuasive tone: "Mass Boss, you better have dem eggs scrambled." "What the d—l do you mean?" roared Harry. "Well," said Sambo, "Mass Boss, I'll tell you, dem eggs ain't very fresh, and dey'll look better scrambled." Harry cancelled the order for hen fruit in toto.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

THURSDAY EVENING, Dec. 28, 1871.

Gold in New York 108½.

Portland Legal Tender quotations 90½c buying; 92c selling.

Our local finances continue to show a growing ease, with all demands for short loans met at the banks at 1 ℔ cent per month discount. Call loans, with good collaterals, can be placed for less. Discounters on the street are reticent regarding the rate of interest on time loans, but from all information obtained by us from reliable sources the rate of discount on the street is less, owing to the pressing wants of borrowers giving real estate security, having them met; and others, though willing to borrow, are not willing to give as much as demanded. From the present lookout the rate of discount on the street will rule still lower.

Very general complaint is made by Front street merchants that interior traders are not remitting to meet their obligations with as much promptness as the easy state of the interior money market would justify them in doing; and consequently it is expected a very general demand will be made on them next month by our merchants.

The bark Webfoot will complete her cargo to-morrow.

The bark Rival will finish discharging by Monday, and will be laid on for San Francisco.

The steamer Ajax will be due Dec. 30th if she left San Francisco on day announced in the Guide, of that city, viz: Dec. 20th.

The steamer California commenced receiving freight again this afternoon for Victoria and Sound ports, as did the steamer Oriflamme for San Francisco. Both vessels are advertised to leave to-morrow (Friday) at 11 o'clock A. M.

Advices received from Astoria per Dixie Thompson inform us that the barks Almatia and Whistler, with general merchandise had crossed the Bar and would be towed up as soon as the other vessels. The Almatia grounded about two miles below Astoria but was got off. The extent of injury sustained, if any, was not reported. The barks Alden Besse and Harrington were lightered, which we have been informed was useless, for if they can be towed up at all they could come up with their full cargo. The ship Windward was still at anchor at Astoria and would probably be towed up next week.

Business for the week under review has been dull, owing to the close of navigation on the Columbia river north, and also in consequence of the old year drawing to a close, when all merchants are presumed to carry light stocks, to enable them the better to take account of same and strike a balance sheet for the year. From all information obtainable next year's business will open early and stronger than ever before, as nearly all interior merchants, though purchasing heavier than any previous year, are running short of assortments with light supplies in all lines.

WEEKLY MARKET REVIEW.

Produce Market.

BREAD—Quotable, Soda, 7¾c; Picnic, 7½c; Butter, 7½c; Jenny Lind, 11½c; Ginger snaps, 21½c; Pilot, extra, 6c; Medium, 5½c; Navy, 4½c.

WHEAT—The market since our last review has fallen from 10 to 15 cents per cental in the San Francisco market and also in this. Mail advices from San Francisco, under date of Dec. 21st, give the Liverpool quotations at 12s 6d with market dull. The heavy rain storms that have visited California—which at last telegraphic advices, Dec. 23d, were still continuing—insures to our sister State a bountiful harvest such as that has never been equaled in the agricultural history of that State, owing to the large area of land placed in cultivation and the improved mode of farming. With the fear of a "dry winter" dissipated, speculators in California are more disposed to meet the market, even at the low rates quoted, but exporters manifest no desire to purchase largely yet. The amount of surplus Wheat in California, which will be exported is estimated at between 50,000 and 60,000 tons. In this State the amount yet to be shipped—not including Wheat Flour—is between 20,000 and 22,000 tons. This estimate is based upon a correct count of the amounts yet to come forward by the two railroads, and an estimate of the amount to be brought forward by the Willamette Transportation Company. Two vessels to load the Alden Besse and Harrington—have not yet arrived, and upon arrival it is altogether likely that the Besse will be chartered to load Flour for China, with a return cargo of Rice. In our market, shippers, in absence of late telegraphic advices, are virtually out of the market; not even caring to make purchases at our quotations. It is doubtful if a round lot can be placed above $2 per cental, although shippers are offering for small parcels $2 10 ℔ cental, delivered.

FLOUR—Our market at this writing is languid, under unfavorable advices, though of a conflicting character—from China, where millers both in California and here expected to work off their surplus which would enable them to retain prices steady at former quotations. At the beginning of this week the market was fairly active, owing to the announcement that the steamer California would leave for Victoria and Sound ports, but with her time of leaving postponed the activity was soon lost. The steamer Oriflamme, for San Francisco, will have about all her cargo composed of Flour. The cold weather has in some instances interfered with the running of the interior mills. The local demand for the past week has not been active, owing to the depression in the Wheat market causing dealers to expect another decline. We quote extra of standard brands weak at $7 ℔ bbl.; choice country brands, $6 75 ℔ bbl; though for a large order concessions would probably be made; superfine and outside brands, $6@6 50 with market weak. Graham—McLaran's, $6 50@7 ℔ bbl; country brands, $6 50.

BARLEY—The bark Almatia with 539 sks on for this market is reported in the river. Our quotations, in absence of supplies, are nominal. We quote the range at $1 10@2 25 ℔ cental.

OATS—The non-arrival of the Windward with a large shipment for a firm in this city, together with light receipts and a fair demand causes the market to rule firm at our last week's quotations. In some of the interior towns the quotations are as high as with us, and in one or two instances higher, with supplies lighter. We quote market at $2 50@2 65 ℔ cental, sacked.

POTATOES—The amount known to be afloat for this market is 34,000 sacks; 700 on the bark Almatia; 2,500 on a schooner from Humboldt; and 800 sacks from Tillamook. This amount, when received, together with the light receipts from down the river will probably cause a slight reduction in our quotations. We quote the range of the market in jobbing lots firm at $1 75@2 50 ℔ 100 lbs.

ONIONS—Market rules steady at last week's quotations of $2 50 ℔ 100 lbs.

HAY—Since our last review, under light receipts and anticipated lighter receipts together with the destruction of nearly 200 tons near here, prices have advanced. We to-day quote market quick at from $35@40 ℔ ton for baled Timothy; and $20@30 ℔ ton for other descriptions.

APPLES—Receipts continue liberal with prices steady at 87½@95c ℔ box.

FEED—Market very firm at quotations with an upward tendency. We quote Bran at $27 ℔ ton; Chop and Middlings, $40 ℔ ton.

CORN MEAL—McLaran's quotable at 3¼@3½c ℔ lb.

OIL MEAL CAKE—None in the market but supplies expected from California.

BUTTER—Receipts for the past week show a marked falling off. We are informed of the shipment of 12,000 lbs of choice for this market from Tillamook which is looked for the last of this week. We quote jobbing prices, strictly choice in rolls at 50 cts ℔ lb; good, in rolls, 35@37½ cts; brine, 30@35c; solid, 25@30c ℔ lb.

PROVISIONS—We quote the market in jobbing lots for Bacon, 14½@15c; Hams, 16@18c; Shoulders, 11@12c; Lard, in tins, 14@15c; in kegs, 13@14. Johnson's new, 16c. Keller's new, 16c. Pork, in bbls, $32. Beef, in bbls, $18.

FRESH MEATS—Quotable at the following prices: Beef, 7@8 cts; pork, on foot, 4@5 cts; dressed, 7@8 cts; sheep, $3 75@4 50 ℔ head.

DRIED FRUITS—Market well supplied with receipts free. We quote market in jobbing lots for Dried Apples, loose, 6@6½c ℔ lb; in kegs, 7@7½c. Dried Plums, pitless, 16@18c ℔ lb.

WOOL—None in market. Fine would command 28@30c ℔ lb, as per length of staple and freeness from dirt.

SEEDS—We quote market for Timothy, 12½@15c ℔ lb; Clover, red, 35@40c ℔ lb; white, 90c@$1 ℔ lb; Orchard Grass, 37@50c ℔ lb; Blue Grass, 60@75c ℔ lb.

BEANS—We quote market in jobbing lots: Bayo, 4½c ℔ lb; Butter, 4½c ℔ lb; Pea, 4½c ℔ lb; Small White, 4c ℔ lb; Pinks, 4c ℔ lb.

POULTRY—Quotable for Hens and Roosters, $4 ℔ doz; Turkeys, $20@24 ℔ doz; Geese, $9 50@10 50 ℔ doz; Ducks, $5@8 ℔ dozen.

EGGS—Receipts for the past week have been light, not equal to the demand for local consumption, and in consequence prices have been advanced to 60c ℔ doz.

GAME—Dealers are buying at the following prices: Venison, 7@8c ℔ lb; Ducks, $1 50@2 50 ℔ doz.; Geese, $3@4 ℔ doz.; Quails, live, $1 50@2 ℔ doz.; Quails, dead, $1@1 50 ℔ doz.; Pheasants, $2 50@3 ℔ doz.; Grouse, $3 ℔ dozen.

Merchandise Market.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS—Gay's plow, Pdd patent, $09; Sulky, $80; Eureka, $90. Buckeye Grain Drill, 9 hoe, $120; 10-hoe, $125. Plows, Collin's cast cast steel, $20; Moline cast steel, $15; Moline Breaker, $45; Moline Clipper, $19 50; Peoria Clipper, $17 50; Boston Clipper, $14 50. Cider Mills—Junior Buckeye, $35 00; Hutchin's $27 50; Hickox, $60. Grant's Fanning Mills, $40@47 50. Mitchell and Bain Wagons, complete, $105@$195.

ALCOHOL—Quotable in bbls $2 05@2 10 ℔ gal; in cases, $2 20@2 25.

BAGS AND BAGGING—Quotable for standard size, 14@15c as per quality and quantity; Bl or Sacks, 10½c.

BOOTS AND SHOES—Trade fair with prices firm with an upward tendency.

BUILDING MATERIAL—Local demand dull at prices ranging, for rough lumber, $12@14; dressed, $22@30; flooring, $24@28; lath, $3 per M; shingles, $2 50; Eastern hardwood, 17@20c per foot.

BROOMS—Quotable at $3@5 50.

CANNED GOODS—Oysters $2 75@3; Jams and Jellies, $4 75@5; Los Angeles Honey, $4 60; Strawberries, $4; Raspberries, $4; Blackberries, $4; Pine Apple, $3 50; Green Gages, $3 75@4; Peaches, $4 25@4 50, Pie Fruit, $3@3 50; Green Peas, $3 25; Green Beans, $3 25; Lobsters, $3 50@3 75; Clams, $4; Green Corn, $2 75@3; Tomatoes, $2 50@2 75.

CANDLES—We quote market firm at 16@20c, full weight; light weight 13@15c.

COFFEE—Market well sustained at the following jobbing prices: Costa Rica and Guatemala, 22@22½c; Rio and Manila, 21@21½c; Java, 27½@30c. J. F. Jones & Co.'s Ground Java, 27½@30c; Chartres, 25@27c; Phoenix Premium, 20@22c.

CRANBERRIES—Eastern jobbing at $20 ℔ bbl of 30 gallons each.

DRY GOODS—Standard drills, 15@16½c; seconds, 13c. Sheetings, light, 11½c; medium, 12½c; standard, 14@15c; house lining, 9½@10c; bleached sheeting, ¾, 9@10c; do, ⅞, 10½a13½c; do, 4-4, 13@25c. Cotton checks, 15a28c; linen checks, 15a25c; cambrics, 10c. Cotton flannel, bleached, 17a22c; do, brown, 12½@18c. Cottonades, light, 20a25c; do, heavy, 27a40c. Denims, 14a24c. Hickory stripes, 14a22c. Standard prints, 11½c; seconds do, 9c. Delaines, 18a20c. Linseys, 20a39c. Ticks, ⅞, 14½a30c; do, 4-4, 20a30c. Bear duck, 24c. RAILROAD LANDS.

OFFICE OF LAND DEPARTMENT,

OREGON & CALIFORNIA R.-R. CO.

AND

European and Oregon Land Co.,

PORTLAND, OREGON, August 1, 1871.

THE COMPANY IS NOW PREPARED TO EXTEND the pre-emption privilege of purchasing Railroad Lands in advance of the same being placed in market to all parties desirous of securing them on the following terms:

The applicant filing in this office a claim in the form prescribed, to-wit:

Pre-emption, date, No. ——.

To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company:

SIR: You are hereby notified that I have settled upon and improved (description of land) in the county of State of Oregon, containing —— acres, and that I claim a pre-emption right to purchase said lands at the Company's valuation in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company, adopted on the twenty-sixth day of May, A. D. 1871, to the terms of which I hereby fully assent:

"Resolved, That the parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company, before the same are opened for market, shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchase on the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement, and shall be subject to the same conditions of payment, as all other lands belonging to the Company, when brought into market; provided, such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company, written application, giving notice of such settlement, and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent, through the Postoffice, or otherwise, as may be convenient, to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person."

(Name of applicant.)

(Postoffice address.)

When the application is received, a certificate, signed by the Agent, obligating the Company to the terms, will be sent to the claimant in the following form:

PRE-EMPTION CERTIFICATE, NO. ——.

This is to certify that ——, of —— county, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office a pre-emption claim to (description of premises), and is hereby entitled to the first privilege of purchasing said land at the Company's valuation, (which is to be made without reference to improvements) when the same shall be placed in market, in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors of said Company, adopted May 26, A. D. 1871.

When the price of the above described land is fixed, notice thereof will be sent to the party to whom this Certificate is issued, and if the land is not purchased by the said party as the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.

(Signed) Land Agent of the E. & O. Land Co.

The lands will be appraised by a competent, disinterested party, under oath, at their actual present value—no fancy or prospective price on the basis of similar lands in the vicinity, and when appraisement is made they will be sold in quantity not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to one person, payable in five equal annual installments, with interest from date of contract, at ten per cent per annum, principal and interest payable in United States Legal Tender Notes. Warranty deeds given after United States Patent issues, upon payment in full.

Blank forms of application furnished upon request.

I. R. MOORES,
Land Agent.

CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

City Assessment.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE ASSESSMENT Roll of the City of Portland has been duly filed and will remain open at the Auditor's office until January 15, 1872, prior to which time all applications for correction of errors must be filed. Particular attention is directed to the following Section, Ordinance No. 1118.

Section 3. Any person deeming himself aggrieved by the assessment, valuation, or listing of property may apply to the Common Council for a revision of the same. Such application shall contain a list of all the property subject to taxation for city purposes, owned by, in the hands of, or under the control of the applicant and a concise statement of the particular item or items claimed to be erroneously assessed, which said application shall in all cases be verified by the oath or affirmation of the applicant, and must be filed with the Auditor before the first day of January following the date of the filing of the assessment roll.

The time named in said Section is extended to January 15, 1872.

STORAGE WAREHOUSE.

For Goods, Wheat, Flour, Wool, and Every Other Description of Produce or Merchandise, etc.

The commodious fire-proof brick and stone building known as the Distillery, situated on North Front street, near the Westside Railroad Depot and Ferry Boat, has been opened for the storage of goods and produce of every kind. Being well and substantially built of stone and brick, is particularly adapted to this purpose, and being a little removed from other buildings causes it to be a place of great safety in case of fire. Moderate charges.

For storage, address to W. E. BROWN, Sen., at Russell, Ferry & Woodward's, 100 Front street, Portland, or to Box 231, Post Office.

Goods and produce of every description also received, for sale on commission. d18d1m

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal [illegible] Europe, and has resumed practice at his [illegible] Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San F[illegible] where his old patients and those requiring his [illegible] may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor m[illegible] in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with [illegible] facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from [illegible] absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, [illegible] and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation, [illegible] ends suffer until death closes the scene. Let [illegible] guardians, friends, attend to those who [illegible] any of these horrible life-destroying maladies [illegible] they are cared for and cured before it is too late. [illegible] them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, [illegible] made private diseases his special study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to beware of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of [illegible] physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse, solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence [illegible] by the youth of both sexes [illegible] producing, with unerring certainty, the [illegible] of morbid symptoms, unless [illegible] follow [illegible] viz: Sallow countenance, dark [illegible] the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, [illegible] the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence [illegible] in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new [illegible] disposition to shun society, loss of memory, [illegible] flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, [illegible] monomania and frequent insanity. If [illegible] not obtained, should apply immediately, either in [illegible] or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and [illegible] mode of treating these diseases, which never [illegible] a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove [illegible] to him that he was cured of his complaint by [illegible] of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are under any of those fearful maladies, should not [illegible] sacred responsibility resting upon them nor [illegible] obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is [illegible] and will give his patients a written instrument, binding him [illegible] radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, [illegible] medicines promptly forwarded free from [illegible] curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars [illegible] letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and [illegible] who, with bogus sworn-to certificates [illegible] some of the self-styled doctors [illegible] names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and [illegible] too lazy to work at their trades [illegible] shoemakers, newspaper carriers [illegible] office boys, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical [illegible] but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the [illegible] for 1862 and 1863. [illegible] to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; [illegible] in eight cases out of ten are [illegible] there is no [illegible] any of them [illegible] Dr. Gibbon [illegible] titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Gibbon will satisfy [illegible] who may call at his [illegible] his ability [illegible] to cure.
